Highlight, copy text, and use the dictionary

To select a section of text, place your cursor on the first word you want to include, and then click and hold. The word becomes shaded in blue, and quotation marks appear. While still clicking and holding, drag your cursor over the rest of the words or sentences you want to include.

When you release your mouse button, a toolbar displays additional options:

Select a color to highlight a section. Then, click that color to apply the highlight.

> Then, something very peculiar happened. The green leaves changed to a beautiful red and white. "Look at this, Farmer Worth," I said. "It's not real money."

Click to copy a word or passage of text (Note: The amount of text you are allowed to copy is determined by the publisher. This information appears when you click the icon.)

Click to add a note to a highlight.

Click the dictionary to look up a word or phrase.

Note: To see the features supported and publisher permissions for a Follett eBook, go to the Book drop-down, and then select View Title Info.

Notebook features

Click Titles to view your notes for the current title or all Follett eBook titles.

Click Filter to choose the types of information to display, such as bookmarks and notes.

If you are viewing notes for all titles, you will also see a Sort option.

Click to add a note to the current page.

Click the page link to jump to that page in the eBook, if it is available.

Use tags to organize notes across different eBook titles. If you are viewing your notes for all titles, you can sort by tag.

Follett Audiobooks

You can stream Follett Audiobooks online.

Use the controls in the top toolbar to select an amount of time to play the audiobook or to adjust the volume.

Use the controls in the bottom toolbar to play, stop, move forward or back a chapter, or skip ahead or back in 15-second intervals.

Note: To play a Follett Audiobook from the Destiny Discover app, you must download it. The download process starts automatically when you play a checked-out title.
